

20 Years of the Young Life and Times (YLT) Survey.

Reflections on young people's lives 25 years after the Good Friday Agreement.

29 November 2023, 10.00 - 16.15
Malone House, Barnett Demesne, Belfast BT9 5PB

To register, visit www.ark.ac.uk/ylt, email d.schubotz@qub.ac.uk or scan the QR code

Programme

- 9.30 Arrival, registration, YLT birthday party bags, refreshments
- 10.00 Welcome, schedule for the day, brief reflection on why YLT started
- 10.15 Opening address: Chris Quinn (NI Children's Commissioner)

Part 1

Emerging from conflict? Good relations, politics, education and young people's violence experiences 25 years after the Good Friday Agreement

- 10.30 Good Relations and Politics Katy Hayward & Ben Rocher (QUB)
- 11.15 Comfort break
- 11.30 Young Men, Violence and Paramilitarism: Colm Walsh (QUB)
- 12.15 Education, Citizenship and Diversity: Una O'Connor (Ulster)
- 13.00 Lunch break

Part 2

Agents of change? How young people's every-day practices shape Northern Irish society

- 13.45 Young Women & Violence Experiences and Respect: Siobhan McAlister (QUB) & Gail Neill (Ulster)
- 14.30 Young People Volunteering and Civic Engagement: Joseph van Matre (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
- 15.15 Comfort break: Cutting the birthday cake
- 15.30 Young people's romantic relationships: Cate McNamee (QUB)
- 16.15 Close & Outlook

